

TRADITION

TAIWAN

RELIGION

In terms of religion, 35% of the population in Taiwan believe in Buddhism. Religion is a very important role in our daily lives, while our traditional festivals and spiritual comfort are related to it.

BA JIA JIANG

Ba Jia Jiang was originated from Chinese folk beliefs and turns out to be a kind of traditional dance performed by 8 persons. These 8 persons aimed to perform exorcism of evil spirits for Wufu emperor in ancient times

INCENSE

Temple is one of the most crucial parts of Buddhism. We often pray to God for safety by burning incense. The concept of incense is to get rid of unluckiness and have access to fortune.

JOSS PAPER

On specific occasion, we tend to get some Traditional Joss Paper. Traditional Joss Paper, also known as Ghost Paper, which is used to be burnt and we hope it to be transferred to our ancestor's world.

SPRING COUPLET

During Chinese New Year, people always put couplets on the front door to create New Year atmosphere. There are phrases on the couplets in order to pray for good luck and prosperity.